Lefferts Historic House Party Contract

The Lefferts Historic House in Prospect Park is one of the few surviving Dutch Colonial farmhouses in Brooklyn. Built by a prominent 18th century Flatbush landowner, it was donated to New York City in 1918. Today it is operated by the Prospect Park Alliance. It is a family-oriented museum whose theme is the relationship of people to the Brooklyn landscape over the last 300 years.

The two hour rental at Lefferts is an outdoor party led by museum education staff. Parties are held weekend mornings in April through October. Two 6 ft. tables and benches are set up for your convenience. Parties begin with one-hour of structured activities led by museum staff. (Please choose from the enclosed activities menu). During the second hour you may serve your own refreshments and birthday cake (bring tablecloth, utensils and paper goods) and informally explore the Museum and yard. In case of rain, the party will be held inside or on the porch and back-up activities will be available. Please be aware that candles may not be lit indoors. After the party, the renter will receive 25 tickets for the Carousel. The Carousel is located just across the path from Lefferts Historic House and opens at noon so it's a great way to end your party.

Ice Cream. We offer making a half gallon of vanilla ice cream in a wooden hand-operated freezer.

This requires non-stop hand cranking for 20 minutes or more and is a good activity for adults or children eight and older.

But all kids can help, and everyone gets a share when it's ready. Our homemade recipe does not contain eggs, only milk, cream, sugar and vanilla. Freezer uses salt and ice. We supply all materials, you supply labor.
