Prospect Park Honors Volunteers with Recognition Brunch
Saturday, March 6 at 11:30 a.m.
at the Prospect Park Picnic House

They rake leaves, pick up trash, plant trees, assist visitors, and help maintain Brooklyn's landmark Prospect Park. On Saturday, March 6 they will get the recognition they deserve at Prospect Park's annual Volunteer Recognition Brunch

The Administrator's Award will be presented to those volunteers who have given over 500 hours of service to the Park (lifetime). Volunteers who have given over 250 hours of service in one year will receive the Mary Cregg Award. Other volunteers will be recognized with Certificates of Appreciation and Certificates of Recognition for their work at Prospect Park.

Brooklyn Borough President, Marty Markowitz and senior NYC Parks & Recreation Officials will be on hand to thank the volunteers.

Directions to the Picnic House: The Picnic House is located near the 3rd Street and Prospect Park West entrance to the Park. See our interactive map for more information.

Anyone can join the Prospect Park Volunteer Corps: individuals and families, students and retirees, friends and neighbors. Community and corporate groups are also encouraged to help the Park by joining the Volunteer Corps. Upcoming Volunteer information sessions will be held in the Litchfield Villa conference room, 95 Prospect Park West, between 4th & 5th Streets:

- Saturday, March 13 @ 2 p.m.
- Wednesday, March 17 @ 4 p.m.
- Wednesday, March 24 @ 6:30 p.m.
- Wednesday, April 7 @ 4 p.m.
- Saturday, April 10 @ 3 p.m.
- Wednesday April 28 @ 6:30 p.m.
