Cancellation: During the outdoor season (mid May – mid Oct.) the playing surfaces may be affected due to rain. Severe storms may impact the surfaces even after the rain has stopped. A rain date may be chosen after it has been confirmed that the cancellation was required due to inclement weather. In rare instances, such as a snow emergency, play may also be prevented. In these situations, you will be contacted at the phone number on your contract page as soon as possible. All fees will be refunded by Prospect Park Alliance if a mutually acceptable rain date cannot be found.

If you must cancel due to an emergency, please call the Tennis Center no later than the morning of your event. Someone will be available after 8 a.m. The Rentals and Event Planning Office will contact you during the business week after the event date in order to reschedule.

Street parking is available on Parkside Avenue.
