

Audubon Center Greeter

Brief Description:

Greeters at the Prospect Park Audubon Center are key to the mission of the Center, and an essential component of its public face. Greeters will interact with visitors as information guides, and provide information about the Audubon Center and Prospect Park.

Responsibilities:

- Interpret hands-on exhibits for Center visitors.
- Answer visitor questions and provide directions.
- Maintain Exhibits.
- Other duties as needed

Qualifications:

- Talent for speaking to diverse audiences in a friendly and engaging manner
- Interest in Natural History and Environmental Conservation
- Strong written and oral communication skills
- Ability to work as part of a team
- Dedication to life-long learning
- Commitment to Prospect Park