Halloween in Prospect Park

Prospect Park Alliance Presents 36th Annual Halloween Haunted Walk and Fair
Saturday, October 24, 2015, 12–3 pm

BROOKLYN, October 2, 2015 – The Prospect Park Alliance presents its 36th Annual Halloween Haunted Walk and Fair on Saturday, October 24, from 12 to 3 pm. This cherished annual event brings thousands of families to Prospect Park’s Lookout Hill and Nethermead for an afternoon of ghoulish fun that is free and open to the public.

Encounter zombies, werewolves, good (and not-so-good) witches, and other Halloween characters on a haunted walk through the woodland Lookout Hill, ideal for families with children ages 7-12. All ages can enjoy a festive Halloween Fair on the Nethermead, featuring family-friendly activities, as well as sweet and savory treats from some of the city’s top food trucks. This year, meet Snoopy from The Peanuts Movie, and learn the tricks of the trade from Blue Sky Studio artists, who will teach children how to draw their own Snoopy.

In addition, Halloween activities will be taking place throughout the weekend at favorite Park destinations. Discover spooky creepy crawlers at the Audubon Center at its annual Creepy Crawly Halloween, and get spooked with Scary Stories at Lefferts Historic House with master storyteller Tammy Hall. Take take a spin on the 1912 Carousel to the sounds of chilling Halloween music, and enjoy Boo at the Zoo at the Prospect Park Zoo.
