BROOKLYN, October 29, 2016 – The Prospect Park Alliance invites all the local boys and ghouls to test their bravery at the 37th Annual Halloween Haunted Walk and Fair! On Saturday, October 29, from 12 to 3 pm, this cherished annual event will see thousands of families descend on Prospect Park’s Lookout Hill and Nethermead for free, ghastly fun.

Encounter zombies, werewolves, witches, and other Halloween characters on a haunted walk through the woodland Lookout Hill, ideal for families with children ages 7-12. All ages can enjoy a festive Halloween Fair on the Nethermead, featuring family-friendly activities, as well as sweet and savory treats from some of the city’s top food trucks.

In addition, choose your scare by visiting your favorite Park destinations throughout the weekend. Discover spooky creepy crawlers at the Audubon Center at its annual Creepy Crawly Halloween, get spooked with Scary Stories at Lefferts Historic House with master storyteller Tammy Hall, or take a spin on the 1912 Carousel to the sounds of chilling Halloween music,
